After years of hardship, Hyacinth yearned to return to the place that always felt like home—the majestic Montana Rockies. She accepts a proposal as a mail-order bride and moves west, hopeful about the future. But on her wedding day bullets fly, and her marriage might be more short-lived than she could have imagined.

Ben started out on the wrong path, and he's determined to keep to the straight and narrow from now on. But a good deed produces perilous returns, and an outlaw with a personal vendetta is out for his blood. And while he battles his foe, he faces losing the woman he loves.
