Being a disciple of Christ requires much more than believing and confessing certain things about the Son of God. Christ testified that He is the Gate by which all men must enter to be reconciled to God. Yet, Christ also said there is a Way that must be walked, and few there are who find it.

If you would be a disciple of Christ you will have to go beyond accepting a set of beliefs about Jesus Christ/Yahshua the Messiah. You will have to take up YOUR cross and follow Him. The Son of God urged all men to count the cost before committing to being His disciple. To be Christ's disciple will cost you everything, but those who pay the cost will be glad they did.
