Mild mannered journalist Rick Wild is troubled. He's about to get layoff from his job, his family is broke and they still need to pay back their loan. His life is basically over. That all changes when a man is gruesomely murdered in Rick's neighborhood. The only lead the police has are 50 paper cranes placed near the victims body and a letter. Rick, determined to unravel the story that could save his career, begins his search for the killers identity. Using all the leads he can get Rick soon finds himself closer to the truth. But some mysteries are better left unsolved....
