A love triangle like you've never seen before. This wildly romantic and intense story delves into the world of a top notch VIP Escort service, including its owner, the big money backer and potential new recruit.

Abby is young but not nearly as naive as people think she is. She's been making it in New York City on her own since she was seventeen years old, but her ability to read people and get what she wants lands her smack dab in the middle of a love triangle between two very powerful men.

Theo intended to recruit Abby into his highly successful VIP Escort business, but after getting to know her, he can't decide if that's really what he wants. The idea of keeping her for himself is very appealing and he's willing to do whatever is necessary to win her back from one of the most dangerous men in all of New York...

Readers should be 18+ due to mature situations and language.
