The Senorita, The Language Barrier & The Governor's Wife (Politically Incorrect Book 2) Sylvia Redmond

She entertains dignitaries by day, but wants to sample her female employees by night...

Barbara was the elegant wife of the governor. She spends her days maintaining the governor's mansion and attending to her husband's needs, but she has a secret. She's been lusting after the female members of her staff, and she has her sights set on her favorite...

Maria worked for the governor's pool company. She doesn't know it but she is driving the bi-curious governor's wife crazy. She's about to find out, but she doesn't speak English, so it won't be easy for Barbara to tell her what she wants.

Is it possible to have a first time lesbian experience when the object of your desires doesn't speak your language? And why doesn't the governor's pool cabana have a lock on its door?

* This book contains steamy scenes intended for mature readers - if you are not offended by stories about the wives of high government officials and the servants that work for them, enjoy!*
