Hardcover book featuring golden retriever photographs Bark Softly & Carry a Big Stick - A dog's guide to the good life by Lisa Husar We can learn a lot from our dogs... After all, our canine pals have life pretty well figured out. Dogs don't waste time worrying about frivolous things like the mortgage, inflation and wrinkles. They don't stand in front of the mirror and ask, "Does my butt look big in this fur?" Dogs know how to live joyfully and how to make time for things that really matter - like tummy rubs and bacon. In her first book, author/photographer Lisa Husar shares life lessons she has learned from Bear, her own beloved golden retriever. An expert on living the good life, Bear enthusiastically demonstrates ideas which we should all learn to live by. Ideas such as:
