Jersey Lovers Armani Williams

Samantha Kerrington is the strikingly beautiful biracial daughter of one of America's wealthiest black physicians and a white mother. She grew up in the lush green suburbs of Mendham, NJ in her parent's sprawling mansion, holds a finance degree from Yale University, and has a six-figure job working for a financial company. Quincy Williams is a hard working restaurant cook who hails from East Orange, NJ. He's tall, good looking, and a doting father to a precocious seven-year-old daughter who is the apple of his eye. In spite of Quincy and Samantha's vast differences, they meet and the sparks fly. Dr. John Kerrington, Samantha's rich black father has vowed to never marry a black woman because he thinks it will taint his image. His lonely wife Charlotte wants more from him but he pulls away. His secret black mistress, Vanessa desperately wants to become Mrs. John Kerrington and is willing to go all out to become just that. Armani Williams masterfully weaves together a story of love, scandal, and family in his third novel, "Jersey Lovers" via his very own Jerzee Boy Publications publishing imprint.
