FBI Agent Owen Ward has come home to deal with things on his family ranch. Or so the town thinks. Suspected terrorist activity has been going on in Compton and they've sent Owen back to the town he grew up in. As he works his way through the investigation, he tries to maintain the secrecy of his real reason for being home.

Taylor has been summoned by her Father. She's relaxing and comes across a stallion that has escaped from one of the nearby ranches. When Owen Ward appears to retrieve his horse, she's reminded of the crush she had when she was a child and has carried with her all her life.

As they're thrust together in the investigation, Owen and Taylor have to try and hold back on their feelings so they can figure out what's going on in town. However when it becomes apparent that Taylor's Father is involved, and he has plans for his daughter, Owen will stop at nothing to keep her safe and make sure she remains unharmed.
