Gene Carolyn Cook

Gene collectors take note-the book you have been wishing for has finally arrived. This is the first book on the popular fashion doll Gene. Written by nationally known doll expert Carolyn Cook with the full cooperation of Gene creator Mel Odom, the Ashton-Drake Gene Team, the Gene designers and others important to the development of this wonderful doll, Gene is a comprehensive publication covering everything from Mel's early years (including some of his favorite childhood photos and original drawings) through the before now undisclosed 1999 designers. Every Gene doll ever produced is photographed and profiled along with original issue prices. A secondary market price guide is provided for Gene dolls that have been retired or issued as limited editions. Over 160 photos, mostly full color, grace the pages of this fabulous 128-page hard cover book. Everything you want to know about the exquisite fashion doll Gene is in these pages.
