Threading the Snail: My Journey Through Deafness Stephanie D. Halvorson

What happened when life went silent? Threading the Snail: My Journey Through Deafness is a true account of author Stephanie Halvorson's world, a world that was changed forever. Faced with a life-threatening infection, she has described the spiritual and personal challenges she encountered when the infection resulted in the loss of her hearing. Although technology has offered some opportunities, Stephanie has opened the door to let us enter and understand life in the deaf culture. Her faith and personal strength have enabled her to overcome the obstacles she has faced as she has continued to succeed in her profession as a teacher and as a loving wife and mother. Threading the Snail will take you into a world that you've never heard before.
