This book analyzes Warren Buffett's investment philosophy and business thoughts so that the intellectual treasure of this business leader could be inherited and passed onto the next generation. Warren Buffett has been worshipped by the media but he attaches great importance to privacy and never answers much. However, to help the creation of The Snowball: Warren Buffett and the Business of Life, he makes an exception and spends 2000 hours talking to Schroeder, recalling his childhood, his life experience and his years of investment experiences.
