Hunt the Witch Down: Twelve Real Life Stories of Witches and witchcraft Margaret Ronan

Twelve true and exciting stories of twelve women whose neighbors were sure they were witches. Sometimes ill-favored and bad-tempered usually sharp-tongued they were people who scared the living day lights out of ordinary folk because of their weird ways, or aroused envy because of their strange powers. Powers that seemed to come from the devil. What these witches has in common is that they were women who used all their wit and wile to survive an often time hostile world. Desperately unhappy housewives, young women and girls, a little crazy maybe, but hunted down and tortured by law, even put to death.
