Faith is essential to the believer in Jesus. But trusting in God is not always easy. There are many doubts and questions that plague us along the way. Several important topics are covered in this book. What is faith? Why did God decide certain things to be sinful? Has God changed his mind? It also looks at the struggle we can face with our faith when a loved one dies, when we feel trapped with no way of escape, and more. How can we trust God when it doesn't make sense?
