A SWEET ROMANCE: BOXED SET BOOKS 1 & 2, A Clean Read Romance: A NOVEL OF DATING AND DESSERT Cassie Page

Save with this twofer. Books 1 & 2 of the clean read romantic comedy, A Sweet Romance.

Melody thinks salsa is a fast track to heartburn, but BFF Charlotte has something else in mind as she drags her unsuspecting friend onto the dance floor after ten years without a date. In this introduction to A Sweet Romance, a clean, humorous love story that will touch the heart, the funny bone and the taste buds, we find our slightly worse for wear heroine, Melody Martin, believing she is over the hill as she faces retirement and a bowl of salsa with her best friend, the fiery scientist, Charlotte. Sleek and sexy Charlotte refuses to believe the number on her birth certificate and tries to get Melody to deny her age as well and get back into the dating game.

In this romantic cookbook, or is it a cookbook romance? At any rate, A Sweet Romance, Melody Martin isn't Our Gal Sunday and she isn't looking for a titled Englishman, just a nice guy, make that a silver fox, to appreciate a newly blond, recently svelte, smart, savvy sixty-something city gal—whoops, don't call her gal, groovy grandmother to have some fun with and appreciate her considerable kitchen skills as evident by the luscious dessert recipes she reveals at the end of each chapter.

Retirement looms just over the horizon for Melody and she wants to prove there's a little libido left in the tank, but the cast of characters who answer her Internet ad seem ready for the junk yard. That is, until Sykikman shows up. Or is it Santaman? She gets her cyber suitors mixed up and almost throws in the towel before Pete of the dazzling blue eyes, shoulders that would hold up the Empire State Building and a block long Mercedes shows up.

But it's been a long, lonely decade since Melody played the singles game. Sure, she can fit into size two jeans again, and she still rocks a mean Grand Marnier soufflé. But the rules have changed she last went stepping out. Maybe her sixty is the new forty. But is that enough to keep a man about town interested?

Pete has the wherewithal to jet Melody away for romantic weekends, but when he isn't careful, he shows he's a diamond in the rough. Maybe his edges are too rough for Melody's refined tastes. Yet, those blue eyes, that sensitive nature reel her in again and again until she oversteps her bounds and it all seems to blow away on the wind.

Can Melody salvage her last chance at love? Will Pete come back to earth and realize the sweet treasure he has in Melody? How can he resist those cakes and pies and cookies? Can you? I mean, seriously? Find out in this boxed set of Books 1 and 2 of A Sweet Romance, Adventures in Dating and Dessert.
