The Captive Bride

Worn out from her negligent and obnoxious husband, Elise takes to strolling through the countryside for a break. One day, she manages to wander too far into unknown territory and is caught like a snared rabbit by William. William works for a neighboring landowner, and his boss is in territorial conflict with Elise's husband. Has Elise been reduced to a bargaining chip between the men of her medieval world or will she find something more?

Possessed by the Duke

Having been on her own for several years, Elizabeth is accustomed to taking care of herself and is proud of her unique independence in a time when women were still seen as property. A trip to town turns ugly quickly, and Andrew rushes in to save her. By the time they return to his estate, Elizabeth realizes he might be looking for more than she expected to give.
