18th Annual Preditors & Editors™ Readers' Poll 2015. Top 10 Finisher in 4th Place

On the surface, Jules Hanover leads a privileged life being a member of the town's most prestigious family. Young, handsome and genteel, he runs his own successful party planning business and appears to be the type of son any parent would be proud of.

Except...

Underneath the glamour and illusion, the Hanover family is anything but the united front they project and Jules is desperate to get away from the charade that's forcing him to endure a secret hell.

With the help of his best friend and a pair of heartbroken ghosts, Jules races to find the truth about an ancient scandal, an unsolved murder and himself. But will the answers he seeks give him the strength he needs or will he become just another skeleton in the family closet?
