Bratva's Rose Tattoo Tom Sloan

A novel: An Air Force transport plane, ferrying the president's limousine and scores of Secret Service, Marine, and Air Force personnel, goes missing over Saudi Arabia. This is no accident, but rather a well-choreographed plan by Bratva, the Russian Mob, to hijack the aircraft and exchange its cargo for the release of a brilliant and dangerous cyber hacker named Max. One of those on board happens to be Special Agent Carly Strain, lead investigator in the case against Max. Travelling as a key member of the Secret Service contingent, she also hoped to spend some time with her husband, Coast Guard Commander Will Strain, Military Attaché to the U.S. Embassy in Kuwait. Both husband and wife are thrust into the center of this international drama, pitting the Russian Mob against America's elite security forces.
