In this play, the antagonistic ice cream man harasses a woman to buy ice cream and refuses to drive to the next stop.

Most people will read between the lines and get the jokes, but few will understand the true meaning of this play. After reading it a few times, you may look deeper into its meaning.

I highly recommend reading this with a friend, with you both playing a character. It's more fun that way.

I also recommend that you use the bathroom prior to reading this, and don't drink any beverages while the play transpires. You will probably spit from laughing. You have been warned.
