SWIM TEAM by Cassandra Cole

Janet Collins is the star of her college swim team. She eats, lives, and breathes swimming.

When Christina Mallory joins the team, Janet immediately hates her.

Christina is bubbly, cute, popular, and quite possibly, one of the best swimmers Janet has ever seen.

When Janet and Christina are thrown together by a stroke of fate, they find that they have much in common.

Their moms are gone, their dads are workaholics, and they live to swim.

As their friendship deepens, Christina finds herself attracted to Janet.

The only problem is, Janet is straight as an arrow; but Christina knows that even straight arrows sometimes veer off course...

Especially if they have a little help.
