This colorful, rhyming board book starts the process of teaching infants and toddlers that they each have their very own invisible bucket. The book illustrates how happy a little one is with a bucket full of love and light and how sad when something causes that love and light to disappear. You'll quickly see that the love and light in a baby's bucket is the joyous result of simple, caring interactions that fulfill a baby's essential needs for security, love, belonging, independence and fun.
