Your role as a parent is to not only ensure your child survives until they leave home, but to do everything in your power to ensure that when they do leave home, they are independent souls with nothing holding them back.

You have to ensure that you give them the greatest start in life. Sometimes, you have to ignore society trends, sometimes you have to ignore the kids whingeing, sometimes you have to ignore your friends and family, in order to do what is RIGHT for your children.

By allowing your kid to be obese, you are giving them a handicap.

If you have a fat, school aged kid; it's your fault. And you have to now reverse that. This book will show you how, in 12 easy steps...
