There are many kinds of friends: occasional acquaintances, friends in your life for a season and then there are “salt shaker” friends. The Bible speaks about being salt and light in our world. My friend Rose is just that. Her writings come from life experiences and from her very close relationship with our Heavenly Father. You can rest assured that when you read the pages of this book, you are hearing from God. It will sprinkle a few grains of salt that give your life new flavor and it will shine His light on those gray and cloudy thoughts that would discourage and bring you down. So sit down in your armchair with a cup of coffee, open Just for This Day and be blessed with words that are a message from your Heavenly Father.
