Matsy Palmer: Mars Needs Women!: Episode II David D'Champ

After winning the first battle against NUTS, Matsy is informed that a suspicious decrease in female squirrel population in North America may be related to recent NUTS activity. Matsy and her team suddenly find themselves on a quest to discover the true secret of what NUTS is up to and while doing so come face to face with ghosts from each of their own pasts. As the team struggles with truths about themselves they must also face the real possibility that NUTS is not the real enemy. An alien race called the Slavers appears to be the real power behind this new attack and they are led by a twisted incarnation of Matsy's very own mother.
