Book Four Clarity & Reason (Each of these books have to be read IN ORDER or you will be lost.)

As Rue accepts the tragedies that have befallen her family, she finds it almost impossible to allow love back into her heart. Every day she is maturing, coming closer to becoming a true protector, closer to understanding her power and what she truly is. All the while some old enemies have now become strong allies, and some allies are not what they seemed to be. Will she love again? Will she take the final steps and accept her powers? Or will she force them back into the books, locking them away forever?
