Jade Taylor has nothing left to fight for except the vengeance in her heart. Patrick is unreachable, a memory of what real love could be, and it's up to her to catch the man who helped put him there. It's fight or be trampled by the remnants of the mob, and the one enemy who's set on destroying Jade, now that he has a Patrick-free path to her. But pining away for her step-brother blocks her senses, destroying her from the inside out as she tries to gather the shattered pieces of her life.

Jade fights to free herself, and the man she loves, but she's caught in a snare and it's closing fast. The darkness has come to consume Jade, Patrick and everything that stands in its way. Unfortunately, the darkness has a face, and he's determined to make Jade and Patrick remember it until the day they die. Which might be sooner rather than later.

Jade's life is on a knife edge. The players stand on the edge of the board, waiting for her next move. Except any minute could be her last in her final game of forbidden love.
