My Soul Purpose: Living, Learning, and Healing Heidi Von Beltz, Peter Copeland

Funny, forthright and irrepressible stuntwoman Heidi von Beltz was 24 when a crash on the set of "The Cannonball Run" left her barely alive and completely paralyzed. Doctors gave her a few months to live or, at best, a few miserable years confined to an institution. Heidi set out to prove them wrong--and today she can move all her major muscles and can stand on her own. This is the inspiring account of her remarkable life. Photo insert.
