She's been working there so long, she's basically become part of their family, and because she's raising her little girl all by herself, she works all the time, leaving no time for a social life. But then one night, everything changes when the Skulls new member, Chasan Denner, walks in and stares her down with his ocean-blue eyes.

But then... something horrible happens. While closing the bar one morning, Kessi is attacked by a stranger. Too afraid to go to the police, and too alone to miss a night of work, Kessi is forced to show the Skulls what happened, and they vow to seek retribution for her. But will she find true love in the process?
