Realizing that this could be the last chance to save their country from slipping into the abyss, thirteen patriots, with ultra-top secret backgrounds, make use of a highly classified program to come up with a plan designed to save America. They also hope to reawaken and reinvigorate the Republican Party and its Conservative base. It is through this program, as described in the book, that some of America's most famous and influential figures from her glorious past are returned to the present to formally address a Republican Party in turmoil and its sometimes repressed and less than conservative leadership. The question remains, who are these giants from our past and what is their message. Could they be the first five presidents, as rumored: George Washington, John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, James Madison, and James Monroe? Or are they the original architects of the United States Constitution, to include Benjamin Franklin, Alexander Hamilton, and John Jay. Be warned; their message is powerful and thought-provoking. It is a stern warning to both sides of the political aisle about the future of a country these historic figures helped forge. You will not want to cast your vote until you have read this novel. A remarkable and riveting, uplifting story. This book is a must read for true conservative republicans and others. This is suspense at its best.
