"Do you not understand you are not in a position to be telling me what to do? If I want you..."

"...And you do."

"What was that?" The demon whispered as he licked his dark lips, staring into her eyes. His gaze narrowed on her. His voice was silky, the tone vaguely threatening. A shiver worked through her as she watched his face. "What were you saying?"

"You heard me." She whispered with a smile. No fear came from her; despite how he might feel she had nothing to fear from the being before her. "I think..."

His hand pressed into the small of her back as he leaned in to hover inches from her parted lips.

"Best use your words carefully, exorcist." He whispered as his strange glowing gaze swept over her features. The look was predatory, hungry.

He is beautiful, deadly and exciting.

Exorcist Eve loves her job.

And she's good at what she does, too. Her job is to exorcise demons...using some unorthodox methods some would say, but hey- a job well done is a job well done.

Her latest assignment involves the fallen shade of a once great and kind man. As compassionate and gentle as he was before his Fall he's wicked and sinful now that he's tossed away all his mortal pretenses. He wants what he wants and he will have it; Eve would not have it any other way.

He's her kind of demon.

It's just the kind of job Exorcist Eve loves the most. She has needs as well and there are some itches only a feisty demon can scratch.

What happens when a demon comes face to face with a mortal whose appetites match his own?

The Exorcist Eve stories can be read in any order the reader desires. Each book is a complete stand-alone bedtime story, meant to be enhanced by the other books in the series but aiming to please in whatever order dear reader wishes to take them in.
