Note: People (even those who do not mean to be rude) often ask me whether my journalism interferes with my serious writing. As a matter of fact, my journalism is serious writing. With one exception, which is explained on p. 50, all these pieces have been published or broadcast. I have in each case noted when and where - I have occasionally restored sentences which editors cut. I am (all the same) very grateful to all the editors concerned for permission to print.
